

Forester's Report 3-29-2013

No burning permits were issued since the last Forester's Report.

No firewood harvesting activity was noted at 6 Acorn Drive.

Met with the Boy Scout at Harmon Park regarding a possible reforestation service project.

Progress is being made on development of woodland management guidelines and locating educational materials related to this topic.

Attended Shade Tree Short Course to keep current with latest tree care information.

Put up street weight limit signs on March 27.

Jim Naves
City Forester